

ELDER WORDS

Published by FFR for the OCF Elders Committee

December 2018

HAPPY HOLIDAYS !!

Previous editions have been edited and produced by OCF Elder Peggy Day Fitzgerald. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all of her previous efforts to create our Newsletter.

Peggy has moved to Portland, Oregon, with her family.

This Newsletter is produced by volunteers from the Elders Committee, other Oregon Country Fair Elders and their supporters.

Costs, publication and distribution are underwritten by its sponsor FairFamilyRadio.com (FFR)

Any projects under consideration for the 50th and that need funding, apply directly to the 50th Task Force - contact OCF office to obtain referrals.

ARCHIVES

Are alive and funded thanks to a $12,000 grant from the Oregon Cultural Trust. Our thanks to Terry and Jerry for organizing this momentous job. Usage Rules are being developed so members can interface. A "missing items list," opportunity to identify people in old photos and a request for volunteers is in process. Folks interested in helping with archives or 50th exhibits contact: jerryjoffe@aol.com .

As part of the OCT grant, there will be a year-long exhibit at the Lane County Historical Museum. 50 years of the Oregon Country Fair will be on display with a possible opening date of June 8, 2019.

There will also be a 2 month display in downtown Portland at the Multnomah County Library, 3rd floor, possibly opening on June 22, 2019

Sponsor Message

In an effort to increase the communication of Oregon Country Fair Elders and their supporters. Fair Family Radio (FFR), is providing this snail mail copy to all elders. We will provide PDF copy by Email to those who request. In the future those who have previously requested Email only will be Emailed a PDF copy and by snail mail to all other Elders with Elder Status.

This is a dynamic process and service and is subject to many factors; time, volunteerism, costs, and input from Elders and their supporters.

For those who receive this newsletter by snail mail, have suggestions, and contributions, reply to:
