OTHERS PRESENT: Licia Shultz (facilitator) Chris Harrison, Jon Pincus, Sue Barnhart, Ann Marie, Larry, Catherine, Rick and John

MINUTES from the May Elders meeting were approved.

KOCF-The Fair has given our radio station space within the fair and has built a booth next to Hoarse Chorale. Fantastic!

KOCF is participating in the "50 mile garage sale" along hwy 36 as a fundraiser, find us at Goldson Grange this Saturday, 6/24.

STILL LIVING ROOM-FENCE-A new, higher fence will be erected behind the Still Living Room in time for this year's fair. Cascade Wildlife has been relocated and the Still Living Room will be able to expand into this space up to the mirrors.

MEET-N-GREET-Hat was passed to collect funds for purchasing wine. Attendees are also encouraged to bring their own as we typically run out.

We are inviting elders to be more involved and soliciting help, offering opportunities for holes we need filled. A white board will have help wanted listings, Anne Marie offered to assist with getting it set up. Party set up helpers should show up at Alice's firepit Thursday at 4:30. Non-elder help is also welcome! Party time is 7-10 p.m. Thursday 7/6/17.

Steel Wool had been scheduled entertainment but due to serious health issue they have had to cancel. Eric is seeking a replacement. Katie will get the sound permit while she's on site this Saturday.

It is the 50th anniversary of the Summer of Love so LOVE is our theme.

Our BUM is Chris Brown's daughter, Jessica, a.k.a "Cotterpin"

ELDERS CENTRAL-Eric and Peggy have already set up 2 tents for hospitality. There will be less cooking in the tent and a cut back of food stuff. If you haul it in, haul it out. Two coffee pots are available-bring/donate drip grind coffee. Peggy will come up with a budget and give receipts to Licia or Katie.

Paxton will be bringing radios. There will be a dedicated recharging area for electronics.

Katie donated a rug for the hospitality tent-thanks.

CAMPING-Tent tags are required. Pick them up when you check in to your assigned site.

Peggy has a waiting list, overflow is going to Dahinda Acres and the Southwoods area. She will be onsite as of July 1. She may be reached at eldercamphost@gmail.com

SHOWERS-Norma will shower us with love and a cleaning crew again this year. Let her know how much we appreciate her efforts!

STILL LIVING ROOM-Terry Baxter (archivist) and his wife Debby have agreed to fill in as the coordinators this year.

SET UP-Monday, July 3 at 10 a.m., meet at ElderCentral. Help is welcome.

DECORATING-Wednesday at 10 a.m., meet at the Still Living Room. Flowers?
Patricia will be in contact with DeeDee and will get back to Licia; Zen Barn flower crew may also be helpful if asked.

TAKE DOWN-Stuff that needs to be secured should be removed from the booth Sunday evening or else it walks away. We could use help, 8 p.m. Put away of all items will be Monday, 10 a.m.

We are using Chris H's truck, archeology trailer, Lois Inman offers to drive.
Gators/trailors have been useful in the past.

GEEZER-Drivers have been lined up. Paxton has arranged a dedicated charging area. The Geezer will be doing shorter runs but will include registration. It have a scheduled charge for 1 ½ hours during the day, service ends at 7 p.m. for overnight charging.

We could use more decorations for the Geezer.

Peggi from Bi Coastal café has donated two roustabouts to the elders, these are ADA approved 1 person electric scooters. They need to be transported to the fairsite, Peggy F will get more info on care needs for non-fair time, storage and other issues to be determined..

CANDIDATES FORUM-tentatively scheduled for Sunday, September 10 at 2 p.m

Thanks to Kay for offering her lovely space for this meeting. Thanks to John Higby for kitchen support.
