Moved to Article V, Section 1 ... this is inconsistent with section 1 above, which states that OCF has only one class of members. If there are charter members and general members, then OCF has two classes of members and you need to describe each class in the Bylaws pursuant to ORS 65.144.

(e) Charter members who have loaned money to the OCF as evidenced by a promissory note, shall have the right to receive payment for the unpaid balance due, payable from the assets of the OCF first after other debts and liabilities have been paid.	Same comment as above regarding charter members. If the general members don't have this same right, then OCF does have two classes of members. Also, it's not clear if this applies at all times during the life of the OCF or only on dissolution.	Charter members who have loaned money to the OCF as evidenced by a promissory note, shall have the right to receive payment for the unpaid balance due, payable from the assets of the OCF first after other debts and liabilities have been paid.

In the case of involuntary expulsion, termination or suspension of membership, the member shall be given not less than 15 days advance written notice from the Fair specifying the reasons for the proposed action. The notice shall specify a time and place at which the member will be provided an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing as the member may choose, which time shall be not less than five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension or termination. The notice shall be given by first class and certified mail sent to the last address of the member shown on the Fair's records. The hearing may be held by the Board or its designee, which shall make findings and then decide the issue of suspension or termination or suspension of membership.	This appears to be saying much the same thing as section 5(a) above regarding automatic termination. However, there's no opportunity for a hearing under 5(a). You might consider combining these two sections, as a member could argue that failure to comply with the Bylaws (which is cause for automatic termination under 5(a)) should actually entitle him/her to a hearing under this section 5(c). It would also be useful to explain the difference between expulsion and termination, as they appear here to mean the same thing.	(c) Involuntary suspension or termination. A member may be expelled, terminated or suspended from membership for failure to comply with these Bylaws or other rules, resolutions and policies of the Fair, or for actions contrary to the interest of the Fair. (d) Expulsion of a member from the Fair property, or expulsion, termination or suspension of volunteer position or status does not constitute expulsion, termination or suspension of membership. Members who are excluded from the property or whose volunteer position or status is terminated or suspended shall not lose eligibility or membership under Section 2 of this Article solely by virtue of failure to participate as a volunteer, worker, performer or booth participant in any annual fair from which such member has been excluded or not allowed to participate in such member's previous assignment as a volunteer, worker, performer or booth participant due to exclusion, suspension or termination of such individual by the Fair.	(d) Expulsion of a member from the Fair property, or expulsion, termination or suspension of volunteer position or status does not constitute expulsion, termination or suspension of membership.
