Oregon Country Fair
Annual Meeting Financial Report
Hilary Anthony and Lynda Gingerich, Co-Treasurers
2023

Dear Fair Family,

The fall rains have started, and I find my thoughts going toward gratitude. I am thankful that we gathered in 2023. I am still grateful for that SVOG grant—which is still cushioning our efforts to find our new normal. I am grateful for the skill and dedication of our volunteers, entertainers, youth, elders, booth folks and staff; our organization is exceptional for the level of engagement we have with a vibrant community.

I'm also grateful for my Co-Treasurer, Lynda Gingerich, who has served on committees and as an officer for the better part of a decade. She played a key role in updating the Budget Committee information systems and kept the meetings running smoothly. She has a strategic and kind approach to organizational change. She is going to move on to other fair roles. I don't expect to be the only one who will miss her at meetings—with her big laugh and ability to sort through the weeds. Big thanks for your service, Lynda. I expect you will continue to find love and success.

Turning to the 2023 interim financial results:

- 1. 2023 didn't turn out exactly as we had hoped when we budgeted, but it was not a total disaster. Before the event, two of our largest vendors gave us late bids that tripled amount we had been paying them. We offset some of that by a change in ticket prices. Compared to our income projections, we undersold tickets on Friday and Sunday, as well as booth passes. We lost money on operations, mostly due to the income shortfall and contract increases.
- 2. Overall, we may be close to breakeven for the year because of non-operating income—the insurance recovery for the winery house, and investment gains on the endowment. Neither of those sources fund operations.
- 3. The financial planning committee is recommending a return to projecting income (and hence expenses) based on a more conservative estimate—closer to the actual attendance for 2023. While there is potential upside, if Friday and Sunday ticket sales are higher, or if more booth folks return—we think it is prudent to plan for the lower numbers. The committee is also recommending using earlybird/normal pricing rather than advanced/day of pricing—that is the discounted ticket prices would end before the start of the event. We are recommending price increases, in anticipation of being able to rebuild our ability to fund infrastructure repairs and improvements.
- 4. We don't have all the final numbers for a complete report on the capacity results (particularly late SO sales and trade passes), but it appears that we stayed within 35,000/people/day on site (esp on Friday and Sunday). Anecdotally, I've heard reports of camping being at capacity and some strain on the parking. Stay tuned for more details. The financial committees continue to support efforts to hold the population totals, and we are looking for ways to prioritize operational needs and our mission.

One more special shout out—to the members who stay involved, come to meetings, vote, and hold positions of responsibility. We have had some challenging years. I have heard from lots of people who love the fair and appreciate the positive energy and commitment to problem solving when they see it. The faith of those folks buoys me up as I experience how hard it can be to work through some of the big issues that face us.
